this book is about books that recount the story of encountering another book there are various versions of the story told and retold from the heyday of imperialism up to the present day homi bhabha calls it the trope of the discovery of the english book by considering each of these versions carefully we may also give an alternative account of twentieth century english literature as the site of an intercultural discourse this project is very much inspired by debate on postcolonial theory namely the debate between said and bhabha part i is devoted to the discussion of conrad especially of heart of darkness and investigates how the novella has continually been reproduced to the extent that it represents the english book of colonial postcolonial literatures the chapter on hugh clifford ch 3 is virtually the first intensive critique of his novels such as saleh 1908 with a particular focus on their intertextual relations with conrad s texts part ii examines how the story of the english book is repeated and revised in the texts of the following authors joyce cary isak dinesen v s naipaul kaiko takeshi and ngũgĩ wa thiong o this is the first comprehensive book length study of gender politics in ngugi wa thiong s fiction brendon nicholls argues that the mechanisms of gender subordination are strategically crucial to ngugi s ideological project but that his fiction also creates transgressive spaces for women nicholls proposes a strategy of performative reading that offers an ethical basis for analyzing cultural difference and critiquing cultural practices while avoiding both cultural imperialism and cultural relativism
